Re: Seasons at Meridian (the "Property")

Matt:

Milestone Investments, LLC or its assignees ("Milestone" or "Purchaser"), submits this non-binding letter of intent in order to facilitate further discussions regarding the possible sale to Purchaser of the Property as further described below.

Property	The real and personal property located at 2700 E Overland Rd, Meridian, ID 83642, commonly known as Seasons at Meridian.
Seller	Morgan Stonehill & Carlyle.
Purchase Price	$117,000,000 free and clear of any existing debt.
Earnest Money	$5,000,000 to be deposited by Purchaser within three (3) business days of the execution of a Purchase and Sale Agreement, which amount will become non-refundable following expiration of the Inspection Period (as defined below) unless Purchaser elects to terminate the Purchase and Sale Agreement prior to the expiration of the Inspection Period. An additional $5,000,000 shall be deposited by Purchaser within three (3) business days after the expiration of the Inspection Period (as defined below), unless Purchaser elects to terminate the Purchase and Sale Agreement prior to the expiration of the Inspection Period. The Earnest Money shall be deposited with a nationally recognized title company (or an agent for any such nationally recognized title company) selected by Purchaser ("Escrow Agent").
Title, Survey, Costs	Upon execution of this letter of intent, Seller shall provide Purchaser with the current, existing as-built survey for the Property (the "Existing Survey"). No later than ten (10) days after the execution of this letter of intent, Seller shall provide to Purchaser, at Seller's expense, (i) a current title commitment (the "Title Commitment") for an owner's policy of title insurance for the Property (the "Owner's Policy"), together with legible copies of the items listed as title exceptions therein. Purchaser may cause the Existing Survey to be updated in accordance with the 2011 Minimum Standard Detail Requirements for an ALTA/ACSM Survey (the "Updated Survey"). The underwriter for the Owner's Policy shall be selected by Purchaser. Purchaser shall have a period of ten (10) business days following its receipt of the Title Commitment and the Updated Survey to review the Title Commitment and the Updated Survey, and make any objections thereto. At the Closing (as defined below), Seller shall cause the Title Company to issue to Purchaser the Owner's Policy for the Property with extended coverage in an amount equal to the Purchase Price for the Property, subject to no exceptions except as set forth in the Purchase and Sale Agreement. Seller shall pay the cost of the Owner's Policy, any documentary stamp taxes and transfer taxes in connection with the transaction, and any personal property taxes relating to the sale of the Property. Purchaser shall pay the cost for the Updated Survey, any endorsements to the Owner's Policy and any required lender title policy.

Inspection Period

Purchaser agrees to commence its due diligence of the Property on the effective date of an Access Agreement (the "Effective Date"). The "Effective Date" shall be a mutually agreed upon Monday following execution of the Access Agreement and Purchaser's receipt of the due diligence items set forth therein whereupon Purchaser commences its on-site due diligence of the Property. The Access Agreement shall grant to Purchaser a period commencing on the Effective Date and ending thirty (30) days thereafter to review such materials and to inspect the Property (the "Inspection Period"). During the Inspection Period, Purchaser shall be given reasonable access to (i) the Property, including all garages and storage locations, (ii) all financial records pertaining to the Property, and (iii) copies of all environmental reports, zoning reports, plans and specifications, engineering reports, leases, contracts and other items affecting or relating to the Property. If Purchaser is dissatisfied with the Property for any reason, Purchaser shall have the right to terminate the Access Agreement by written notice delivered to Seller prior to the expiration of the Inspection Period, in which event the Earnest Money shall be returned to Purchaser. Promptly following execution of this letter of intent, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser the items set forth on Appendix A attached hereto.

Closing

The Closing shall occur on a date (the "Closing Date") no later than thirty (30) days after the expiration of the Inspection Period; provided, however, Purchaser may extend the closing for up to fifteen (15) additional business days upon written notice to Seller.

Purchase Agreement

Promptly following execution of the Access Agreement, Purchaser agrees to work diligently to execute a Purchase and Sale Agreement expeditiously. The Purchase and Sale Agreement will contain, among other provisions, (i) the principal terms set forth herein, (ii) customary representations and warranties, including those regarding the Property and the rent roll, (iii) the proration of operating expenses, real estate taxes and income (including upfront money and door fees) as of the Closing Date, and (iv) except as otherwise provided herein, the allocation of closing costs between the Seller and Purchaser in the manner set forth herein or, if not specified herein, in the manner customary for transactions of this nature in the locality in which the Property is located, provided each party shall pay its own attorneys' fees. The Purchase and Sale Agreement shall require Seller to provide Purchaser with weekly operating reports regarding the Property and shall include certain rights of Purchaser following the end of the Inspection Period relating to the approval of certain leasing parameters and property operation items. The Purchase and Sale Agreement shall also contain a provision for the reimbursement of out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) to be paid in the event of a breach or default under the Purchase and Sale Agreement by the party so breaching or defaulting.

Standstill

Commencing on the date upon which this letter of intent is fully executed, in consideration of Purchaser's undertaking the time and expense of performing its due diligence review and inspection of the Property, Seller agrees not to (i) enter into any other agreement for the sale of the Property, or any part thereof, (ii) negotiate for such purpose, nor (iii) provide any due diligence information relating to the Property, with or to any other party, until the earlier of thirty (30) days after the date of full execution of this letter of intent or Purchaser's termination of discussions concerning the proposed transaction. The Purchase and Sale Agreement shall provide for Seller's standstill agreement during the Inspection Period.

Brokers, Commissions

Seller and Purchaser represent that neither party has dealt with any broker in connection with this transaction other than CBRE ("Broker"). Seller further represents that Broker is Seller's broker and Seller shall pay any and all commissions or fees due to Broker in connection with this transaction and Seller shall indemnify Purchaser with respect to such representation.

Confidentiality

Seller agrees to keep the existence and terms of this letter of intent confidential and not to disclose the same to any party other than those agents and employees of Seller who have a need to know such information and are advised in advance of this duty of confidentiality, and Seller agrees to be responsible for any breaches of the foregoing obligation of confidentiality by itself or its agents or employees.

Governing Law

This letter will be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware.

Non-Binding

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, except for the obligations of Seller under the sections titled “Standstill”, “Brokers, Commissions” and “Confidentiality” set forth above, this letter of intent is not intended to, and does not create, any binding legal obligation or implied duty of good faith on either party, and is not intended to be construed as an agreement-in-principal, agreement to agree, contract or agreement by Purchaser or Seller. The parties further acknowledge and agree that the current discussions are preliminary in nature and may be terminated at any time by either party without liability (except for the obligations of Seller under the sections titled “Standstill”, “Brokers, Commissions” and “Confidentiality”). It shall be and remain in the sole discretion of either party whether or not to enter into the transaction contemplated by this letter of intent and (except for the obligations of Seller under the sections titled “Standstill”, “Brokers, Commissions” and “Confidentiality”) neither party shall have any liability for failing to do so.

Other Terms

This letter of intent supersedes any and all prior discussions or agreements (written or oral) between the parties regarding the transaction contemplated by this letter. No modification or amendment may be made to this letter of intent unless such modification or amendment is made in writing and executed by both parties. This letter of intent may be executed in any number of counterparts each of which shall be deemed an original, and all such counterparts together shall constitute one agreement.

If the foregoing is acceptable to you, please execute the enclosed counterpart of this letter of intent in the space provided below acknowledging your willingness to pursue discussions upon the terms set forth in this letter of intent and return the executed counterparts to the undersigned. The non-binding proposal outlined herein shall be considered withdrawn if this letter of intent is not executed by both parties on or before 5:00 p.m. Central Time on August 27th, 2026. Please feel free to contact Rich Ritter at 317-730-1768 (or rritter@milestonegp.com) or Jeff Goldberg at 212-871-5901 (or jgoldberg@milestonegp.com) with any questions regarding this offer.
